

4. Review Isaiah 6 and Revelation 21:1-3. What can these passages teach us about the holiness of God and the essential differences between God and human beings?

Dying Words (A Series on 2 Peter)
"Stone of Remembrance"
2 Peter 3:1-7

Simon Peter's call to ministry (Luke 5:4-11).

Texts cited: Exodus 20; Matthew 17; Revelation 1; Isaiah 6.

5. Review 2 Peter 3:3-7. Why is it significant that the scoffers' ignorance is deliberate? In what ways does willful ignorance influence our behavior? How can we fight the tendency toward willful ignorance in our own lives?

When we remember what God has done, we can endure the world (2 Peter 3:1-2).

Texts cited: 1 Peter 1:1; Acts 16:37; Acts 22:25-28; Matthew 1:24; John 6:18; Revelation 21:3

6. Review John 21:1-19. In what ways does this story mirror the story in Luke 5?

7. Set aside time this week to read 1 and 2 Peter alone or with others.

Those who forget will not endure the judgment (2 Peter 3:3-7).

Personal Reflection & Small Group Questions

Please complete this study on your own, then bring it to your small group for discussion.

1. Looking back over your notes from this week's sermon, what particularly caught your attention, challenged, or confused you?

Simon Peter's reinstatement (John 21:15-19).

2. Review some of the texts where people encounter God (Exodus 20, Isaiah 6, Matthew 17, Revelation 1). How should people's reaction to God in the Bible inform our own views on God?

3. Review 2 Peter 3:1-2. In what ways does "remembering" help us endure the world in which we live?
